

BLB&G Partners Hannah Ross and Katie Sinderson Honored for Mentor & Mentee Collaboration in Law.com Women, Influence and Power in Law Awards 2024

August 1, 2024

BLB&G partners Hannah Ross and Katie Sinderson were selected as winners in the Mentor & Mentee Collaboration category as part of Law.com's 2024 Women, Influence and Power in Law (WIPL) Awards. Hannah and Katie were recognized for their outstanding partnership, which has significantly contributed to the firm's growth.

The WIPL Awards showcase women leaders in law firms and in-house positions who demonstrate a commitment to advancing women's empowerment in the legal profession. Hannah and Katie will be honored at an awards dinner on Tuesday, September 24 at Hyatt Regency McCormick Place in Chicago.

Hannah and Katie's collaboration spans over 12 years at BLB&G, during which they have tackled some of the largest securities litigation cases, recovering billions for investors. Katie, inspired by Hannah, founded the firm's mentorship program to support junior attorneys. Together, they co-chair the firm's Women's Forum, an annual event that facilitates networking and knowledge sharing among female leaders in pension funds and institutional investors globally.
