

BLB&G Partners Rebecca Boon and Sal Graziano to Speak at ILEP Symposium 2024

November 7, 2024

BLB&G Partners Rebecca Boon and Sal Graziano will be featured in a panel discussion titled “Private Litigators as Gatekeepers” at the Institute for Law and Economic Policy’s November 2024 Symposium on November 8. Rebecca will serve as moderator and Sal as a presenter, joining a distinguished group of legal and academic professionals.

Rebecca has been litigating securities fraud and shareholder rights actions for more than 17 years, recovering billions of dollars for the firm’s institutional investor clients. She has advanced equality in the workplace by co-founding the Beyond #MeToo working group and leading landmark recoveries that have resulted in important social change among industries.

Sal is a leading securities litigator with a track record of recovering billions for institutional investors and hedge funds through high-profile class actions. Recognized as one of the “Top 100 Trial Lawyers” and a “Litigation Star” by Benchmark Litigation, he has also earned accolades from Chambers USA and Law360 for his exceptional legal work. Sal is a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America and has held numerous leadership roles, including President of the National Association of Shareholder & Consumer Attorneys.

Both Rebecca and Sal recently received individual accolades in the 2025 edition of Benchmark Litigation—The Definitive Guide to America’s Leading Firms and Attorneys.
