

Anya Freedman, Jesse Jensen, and Emily Tu Discuss the Complementary Roles of Private Securities Suits and SEC Enforcement in Law360

February 20, 2025

BLB&G Partners Anya Freedman and Jesse Jensen and Associate Emily Tu discussed the complementary roles of private securities suits and SEC enforcement in the article “How Private Securities Suits Complement SEC Enforcement” published by Law360.

The article examines the SEC’s enforcement record in the last fiscal year of the prior administration. The authors discuss the SEC’s record-setting financial remedies in 2024, highlighting the complexities in actual collections and distributions to harmed investors. They emphasize the importance of private securities litigation in providing direct compensation to investors, concluding that both SEC enforcement and private litigation are essential for holding corporate wrongdoers accountable and compensating harmed investors.